IN RE: Commutation, Settlement Agreement and Release between Reliance Insurance Company (In Liquidation) and Enstar (US) Inc., formerly known as Castlewood (US) Inc., for and on behalf of Continental Casualty Company

LIQUIDATOR’S PETITION FOR APPROVAL OF COMMUTATION, SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT AND RELEASE

Petitioner Joel S. Ario, Insurance Commissioner of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in his capacity as Statutory Liquidator (“Liquidator”) of Reliance Insurance Company (In Liquidation) (“Reliance” or “Estate”), respectfully requests that this Court enter an Order approving the Commutation, Settlement Agreement and Release (“Settlement Agreement”), attached hereto as Exhibit A, between Reliance and Enstar (US) Inc., formerly known as Castlewood (US) Inc., for and on behalf of Continental Casualty Company (“Reinsurer”).

In support of this petition, the Liquidator avers the following:

1. On October 3, 2001, this Court found Reliance insolvent and appointed the Commissioner as Liquidator of Reliance pursuant to Article V of the Insurance Department Act of 1921, 40 P.S. §221.1 et seq. (“Act”). The Act confers broad powers on the Liquidator to marshal the assets of Reliance in order to maximize the value of the insolvent insurer's estate for eventual distribution to its policyholders and creditors.

2. The Act authorizes the Liquidator to take such actions as deemed "necessary or expedient to . . . conserve or protect [the insolvent insurer's] assets or property[,]" including the power to "compromise" claims involving assets of the insolvent insurer in order to accomplish or aid in achieving the purposes of liquidation. See 40 P.S. §221.23(6, 9, and 23).

3. One way in which the Liquidator "compromises" claims and "conserves" assets is through commutation. A commutation is a settlement agreement reached between a reinsured and its reinsurer by which the reinsurance obligation is terminated through an agreement by the reinsurer to pay funds that are both due and not yet due under the reinsurance agreement.

4. Prior to entering into a commutation, Reliance takes several steps, including the following, to ensure that the commutation is fair and reasonable to the Reliance Estate and in the best interests of its policyholders, claimants and the general public:

(a) Reliance develops a complete list of reinsurance agreements to be included in the commutation;

(b) Reinsurance accounting specialists for Reliance verify balances and reconcile differences with the reinsurer;

(c) Reliance's claims department reviews ceded case reserves;

(d) Actuaries for Reliance determine the projected ultimate loss, discounted and undiscounted, taking into consideration specific contract features such as reinstatement premiums, sliding scale rates, commission adjustments and/or loss corridors¹ as well as the impact of other applicable reinsurance and off-sets;

¹ A loss corridor is a mechanism contained in certain reinsurance agreements that requires the ceding insurer to be responsible for a certain amount of the ultimate net loss that is above the company's designated retention and below the designated limit; and which would otherwise be reimbursed under the reinsurance

(e) Reliance and the reinsurer exchange commutation proposals and discuss justifications;

(f) Reliance evaluates the commutation proposal based on nominal results, the discounted results, the volatility and trends of the business, disputed issues and any administrative savings; and

(g) Reliance and the reinsurer secure any required approvals.

5. The Liquidator also has established a Commutation Working Group which performs accounting and data reconciliations, actuarial analyses, and claims reviews and analyses. The Commutation Working Group is largely comprised of several key senior management employees each of whom have over 20 years of insurance and reinsurance experience.

6. In addition, the Liquidator has established a Commutation Committee, consisting of the Chief Liquidation Officer, President, and Chief Actuary, who, along with the Vice-President for Commutations and the Executive Vice-President for Reinsurance, review all commutation proposals. Any commutation in excess of $1,000,000 must be approved by the Commutation Committee.

7. In addition, Reliance's independent consulting actuaries, PricewaterhouseCoopers, have reviewed Reliance's commutation approach both generally and with respect to individual transactions and have concluded that Reliance's process to estimate liabilities ceded to reinsurers is reasonable for commutation purposes.

8. Commencing on December 31, 1998 and ending on December 30, 1999, Reliance and the Reinsurer entered into the "Underlying Workers Compensation Excess of Loss Reinsurance Agreement" ("Reinsurance Agreement"). Excess of loss reinsurance is purchased agreement. A loss corridor is usually expressed as a loss ratio percentage of the reinsurer's earned premium, or a combined ratio if the reinsurance agreement provides for a ceding commission to the company. Loss corridors are employed to mitigate the volatility of reinsurance agreements.

by primary insurers to protect against individual losses that exceed a particular retention. This protection attaches once the primary carrier's per loss retention is exceeded. In this instance, the Reinsurance Agreement provides Reliance with protection in the amount of $1,500,000 in excess of Reliance's $500,000 per loss retention. Accordingly, the total amount that Reliance can recover under the Reinsurance Agreement for any one loss is $1,500,000. However, the most Reliance can recover under the Reinsurance Agreement for all losses is unlimited.

Reliance entered into the Reinsurance Agreement to protect the results of workers compensation accounts written through Reliance's Commercial Lines, Large Accounts and Specialty divisions. The policies subject to the Reinsurance Agreement include workers compensation business written in nearly every state and covering nearly every occupation.

9. Large workers compensation claims pay out over the lifespan of the claimants, which may be as long as 40 or more years from the date of the accident. As part of its due diligence, senior Reliance actuarial and claims personnel conducted a review of relevant claims under the Reinsurance Agreement in order to both verify the accuracy of the reserves and to project the timing of payments for each relevant claim. Appropriate annual medical cost escalation rates were included in these projections. Reliance's actuaries then used the results of this work to project both the payment stream of losses subject to the Reinsurance Agreement and a range of ultimate commutation values for these losses.

10. With the benefit of such due diligence, Reliance was able to negotiate a settlement for the remaining exposure under the Reinsurance Agreement and entered into the Settlement Agreement effective June 25, 2008, subject to the approval of this Court. The Settlement Agreement settles with certainty the claims against the Reinsurer for losses under the Reinsurance Agreement.

11. Specifically, the Settlement Agreement provides that the Reinsurer shall pay Reliance the sum of $27,750,000 ("Commutation Amount") to commute the Reinsurance Agreement. The Commutation Amount was negotiated with the Reinsurer, and the Liquidator has taken the necessary steps to determine, and has concluded, that the terms of the Settlement Agreement are fair and reasonable to the Reliance Estate and in the best interests of its policyholders, claimants and the general public. See 40 P.S. §§221.1(c), 221.23(9).

12. Based on the analysis of the terms of the Settlement Agreement, and the evaluation of the transaction as a whole by the Liquidator's staff and Reliance staff members familiar with the business dealings under the Reinsurance Agreement, the Liquidator has determined that payment of the Commutation Amount by the Reinsurer is a fair and reasonable commutation of the Reinsurer's obligations to Reliance under the Reinsurance Agreement.

13. Keith Kaplan, Executive Vice President for Reinsurance at Reliance, is responsible for all facets of ceded and assumed reinsurance at Reliance including accounting, billing, claims, commutations, coverage analysis, and dispute management. He has specific knowledge regarding the risks to the Estate of attempting to collect reinsurance through billing, negotiation or the dispute resolution process. As set forth in his Confidential Affidavit (attached as "Sealed Exhibit B"), Mr. Kaplan has identified several specific advantages to the Estate arising from the consummation of the transaction memorialized in the Settlement Agreement.

14. The Settlement Agreement will further achievement of the liquidation objectives under the Act. The commutation transaction will assist the Liquidator in marshalling and maximizing Reliance's immediately available assets while minimizing any unavoidable loss to policyholders, claimants and creditors resulting from the Reliance insolvency and hazardous financial condition. See 40 P.S. §221.1(c).

15. First, the Settlement Agreement converts future reinsurance obligations into immediate cash for the Estate. Specifically, the Reliance Estate receives $27,750,000 which can be invested until it is distributed.

16. Second, the Settlement Agreement eliminates both the internal and external administrative costs associated with continued reporting and collection efforts, including legal fees.

17. Third, this commutation eliminates any potential future credit risk associated with collection of the reinsurance proceeds in the event that the reinsurer becomes insolvent.

18. Fourth, no person or firm has earned or will earn any contingent fee or extra remuneration of any type as a result of this transaction.

19. Fifth, under the terms of the Settlement agreement, which has been fully executed, the Commutation Amount was received by Reliance on July 11, 2008; however, the commutation will not become final until the approval of the transaction by this Court. Should this Court not grant this Petition, then Reliance will be required to return the funds received, plus any interest actually earned, to the Reinsurer.

WHEREFORE, the Liquidator respectfully requests that this Court enter an Order in the form attached hereto:

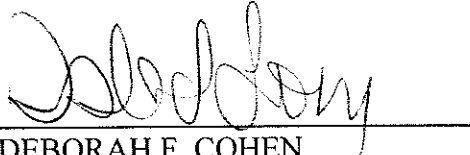

(a) Finding that the Settlement Agreement and Commutation Amount are in the best interest of the Reliance Estate;

(b) Finding that the Settlement Agreement is a fair and reasonable settlement of the Reinsurer's obligations under the Reinsurance Agreement;

- (c) Finding the payment contemplated by the Settlement Agreement constitutes fair and reasonable value to the Reliance Estate; and
- (d) Approving the terms of the Settlement Agreement attached as Exhibit A.

Respectfully submitted,

EXHIBIT A

COMMUTATION, SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT AND RELEASE

THIS COMMUTATION, SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT AND RELEASE (“Agreement”), made effective and entered into this 25th day of June, 2008, by and between Enstar (US) Inc., f/k/a Castlewood (US) Inc., for and on behalf of Continental Casualty Company (hereinafter known as the “Reinsurer”) and Joel S. Ario, Acting Insurance Commissioner of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in his capacity as Statutory Liquidator of Reliance Insurance Company (In Liquidation) (hereinafter known as the “Cedant”). David S. Brietling, Chief Liquidation Officer, is acting on behalf of Joel S. Ario, who is acting on behalf of the Cedant pursuant to the powers granted to him under Title 40, Purdon’s Statutes, Section 221.20, et seq. and other applicable statutes, regulations and laws.

RECITALS

A. The Reinsurer and the Cedant entered into a certain contract of reinsurance wherein the Reinsurer obligated itself to accept from the Cedant the cession of a certain percentage of liabilities with respect to risks written or assumed by the Cedant and/or agents of the Cedant, and;

B. The reinsurance agreement referred to in Recital A above is set out on Exhibit A attached hereto and is herein referred to as “the Contract”, and;

C. Pursuant to the Contract, there are loss developments, the total amount of which are not fully known or not yet capable of determination, representing liabilities which are or may come due from the Reinsurer to the Cedant, and;

D. The parties hereto recognize and understand that, based upon current economic projections, a substantial portion of the Reinsurer’s obligations to the Cedant may become payable in the future rather than at present; that the Reinsurer’s future liabilities and obligations to the Cedant pursuant to the Contract have been evaluated, but cannot be determined in an amount certain at this time; and that a settlement and commutation of the Reinsurer's obligations to the Cedant based upon present calculations of outstanding losses, including incurred but not reported losses, will eliminate the uncertainty of contingent liabilities for presently unresolved or unasserted claims, and;

E. The Reinsurer and the Cedant agree that it is in each of their best interests and in the best interests of their respective policyholders and creditors to adjust and settle their differences and to enter into this Agreement.

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual benefits to be received by the parties hereto and the mutual covenants and agreements herein contained, the parties hereto hereby agree as follows:

Commutation of Reinsurance Agreement

1. Subject to the receipt by the Cedant of the Consideration as set out in Article 4 herein, together with any collection expenses and accrued interest due as is more particularly described in Article 8 (c) and 9 below, and in further consideration of the release contained in Article 2 herein the Cedant hereby irrevocably releases the Reinsurer, its predecessors, successors, assigns, shareholders, officers, directors, agents, sub-agents, brokers and sub-brokers from One Hundred Percent (100%) of all adjustments, obligations, liabilities, offsets, actions, causes of action, proofs of claim, suits, debts, sums of money, accounts, reckonings, bonds, bills, covenants, contracts, conversions, costs, agreements, promises, damages, expenses, judgment claims, and demands whatsoever, whether known or unknown, suspected or unsuspected, by either or both parties, fixed or contingent, arising out of, or in connection with the Reinsurer's participation on the Contract, whether or not such contract is void or voidable.

Release of the Cedant

2. In consideration of the release set out in Article 1 herein, the Reinsurer hereby irrevocably releases the Cedant, its predecessors, successors, assigns, shareholders, officers, directors, receivers, liquidators, administrators, agents, sub-agents, brokers and sub-brokers from One Hundred Percent (100%) of all adjustments, obligations, liabilities, offsets, actions, causes of action, proofs of claim, suits, debts, sums of money, accounts, reckonings, bonds, bills, covenants, contracts, conversions, costs, agreements, promises, damages, expenses, judgment claims, and demands whatsoever, whether known or unknown, suspected or unsuspected, by either or both parties, fixed or contingent, arising out of, or in connection with the participation of the Cedant on the Contract, whether or not such contract is void or voidable.

c. The Reinsurer has not commuted or otherwise settled with or contracted to commute or settle with any person, corporation, company or entity any of their respective rights, title, benefit or obligations directly arising out of or in connection with the Contract, including without limitation any balances, accounts, costs, claims, counterclaims or demands which are within the contemplation of this Agreement;

Consideration

4. The Reinsurer agrees to pay the Cedant the total sum of Twenty Seven Million Seven Hundred Fifty Thousand United States Dollars and No Cents (US$27,750,000.00) (“the Consideration”). Said payment shall be made on or before July 11, 2008 (“the Completion Date”). Reinsurer shall transfer the Consideration to the following account:

Ref:	Kathy Lee

Upon receipt of the Consideration Cedant will deposit it pending receipt of the approval of the Commonwealth Court per Article 15 herein and the Consideration will accrue investment income at the same rate as Cedant receives on its other invested assets.
